

Starter: Start the party with cheerful tapas bursting with Spanish flair, made for sharing, snacking, and smiling.

Fun Fact: Royal origins: One famous legend credits King Alfonso X "The Wise" with inventing tapas in the 13th century. To combat drunkenness among his soldiers and subjects, he decreed that no tavern could serve wine unless it was accompanied by a small bite of food

Main: Dive into a colorful Spanish paella packed with juicy chicken, fresh seafood, and sunshine-filled Mediterranean flavor.

Fun Fact: There is a designated holiday: Paella is such a cultural icon that it has its own global celebration, World Paella Day, which is observed annually on September 20th.

Dessert: Sweeten the celebration with creamy Mediterranean pistachio gelato, cool, colorful, and delightfully festive.

Fun Fact: Ancient Origins: The Roman Emperor Vitellius is credited with introducing pistachios to Rome in the first century A.D.

Beverage: Pour a sparkling glass of sangria and toast to a bright, bold, and joyful Spanish-style celebration.

Fun Fact: Ancient Roots: The concept of mixing wine with water, spices, and fruits dates back to the ancient Romans and Greeks, who used the mix to purify unpotable water.

*Menu subject to change